

CSU WRITES
COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

ED WRITES

FALL 2021

A CSU Writes & SEGA collaboration supporting School of Ed graduate students writing of theses, dissertations, and proposals. School of Ed graduate centered materials, weekly drop-in. writing sessions, and faculty facilitated workshops.
Fall 2021 workshops focus on proposal writing. Open to students in EET, OLPC, and HEL.

WORKSHOPS

Writing Proposals #1 (click to attend)
Thursday, September 16, 12-12:50 PM
Facilitated by Dr. Louise Jennings

Writing Proposals #2 (click to attend)
Tuesday, October 12, 12-12:50 PM
Facilitated by Dr. Jill Zarestky

Writing Proposals #3 (click to attend)
Thursday, November 11, 12-12:50 PM
Facilitator TBA

RETREATS

Saturdays, 10am - 2pm MST (4 hours total)
SEPT 18 (click here to attend)
OCT 30 (click here to attend)

ACCOUNTABILITY

Drop-in writing and goal setting sessions. Schedule to be determined by participants.

(click here to show up & write.)

Co-led by Sarah Van Etten (SEGA Co-Coordinator)
& Dr. Kristina Quynn (Director CSU Writes)

Email: csuwrites@colostate.edu
www.csuwrites.colostate.edu

Register for Calendar Invites

ED WRITES is designed to facilitate the work of School of Education (SoE) graduate student writers. ED WRITES' goal is to improve the quality and increase the number of manuscripts and proposals submitted by SoE graduate students, to contribute to a collegial culture of advanced research writing at CSU, and to begin gathering participant feedback and metrics on the impact of sustained professional research writing support, feedback, and programming.

Colorado State University